

DRESS CODE 2025

Proper business or golf attire is appropriate for most occasions. The following are prohibited in the Main Clubhouse areas at all times: Medical Scrubs, flip flops, slides, sandals, abbreviated tops (halter and bare midriff styles), t-shirts, 'work-out' clothes, shorts made of any blue denim fabric, cargo shorts and pants with protruding outside pockets. Gentlemen are not permitted to wear hats in the Clubhouse at any time (including during breakfast). Gentlemen may wear hats on the patio. Hats must be worn facing forward.

It is the Members' responsibility to notify his/her guests of these policies prior to their arrival at the Club. The staff has been instructed to enforce these policies.

Please check the website calendar for specific event dress code information.

#1: Jacket & Tie (Optional) – Annual Meeting

#2: Special Events – (Passover, Easter, Mother's Day, Rosh Hashanah etc.)

Semi-formal attire. Collared shirts must be always tucked in. No Jeans or denim of any color. No cutoffs, inappropriate mini-skirts or short-shorts, Golf and Tennis attire. Please check event invitations as jackets may be required on certain occasions.

#3: Country Club Casual – (Lunch, Dinner, Other Club Events)

Cutoffs, inappropriate mini-skirts or short-shorts are not permitted. Golf and Tennis attire are permitted at Lunch and Dinner only. Neat and appropriate blue denim, non-distressed, "dress denim" jeans are also permitted. Un-tucked collared dress shirts are permitted. Collared Golf shirts, polo shirts must be always tucked in.

#4: Relaxed – (Holiday BBQs)

Cutoffs, inappropriate mini-skirts or short-shorts are not permitted. Golf and Tennis attire are permitted. Neat and appropriate blue denim, non-distressed, "dress denim" jeans are also permitted. Un-tucked collared dress shirts, Golf Shirts, Polo shirts and T-shirts are permitted.

 Non-distressed, "dress denim" means clean denim that has no holes, rips, or other excessive wear marks, gained through use or by design. It also means that the denim must fit appropriately (no baggy pants).*